

Genna R. Miller

4211 Trotter Ridge Road
Durham, NC 27707
(919) 402-9682
gm19@duke.edu

Education

- Ph.D., Economics. 2003. American University.
Dissertation: Do the Determinants of Participation in Group Business Decisions Differ by Gender?
The Case of American Labor Managed Firms
- M.A., Economics. 1997. American University
- B.A., Economics, Magna Cum Laude. 1994. New York University

Professional Experience

- Duke University, NC. Instructor
 - Economics Department, Spring 2000-Present
Courses taught include: Women in the Economy, Microfinance, Participatory Management Focus Program: Developed Game Theory course for new cluster in Modeling in the Economic and Social Sciences (MESS), Fall 2009 - present
DukeEngage: Faculty Mentor for project at Grameen Bank in Bangladesh, Summer 2010
Served as faculty advisor for senior honors theses.
Independent studies supervised include:
 - Women in Economics: Where Did Everybody Go? Summer 2013
 - Bloggers and Their Effect on Trendsetting in the Fashion Industry, 2012
 - Status of Women in Hong Kong, 2011
 - Gender Equality in Labor Managed Firms, 2003
 - Unequal Gender Impacts of the Chinese Hukou System, 2002
 - Public Policy Studies, 2013
Courses taught include: Microeconomic Policy Tools
 - Women's Studies Program, 2007-2009
Courses taught include:
 - Exchange of Chains: Women in Eastern and Central Europe
 - Women at Work: Gendered Experiences of Corporate Life (Markets & Management)
 - Money, Sex, & Power
 - Gender and the Global Assembly Line
- Hunter College, CUNY, NY. Adjunct Professor, 1998 - 1999
Economics Department
Instructed mathematical economics class focusing on calculus and matrix algebra

Genna R. Miller

Research Interests

Feminist Economics, Worker Cooperatives, Labor-Managed Firms, Pedagogy, Microfinance

Publications

- Teaching Feminist Economics through Student-Written Diaries. (2013) Forum for Social Economics. Vol. 42, No. 1.
- Using Student-Written Diaries to Teach Feminist Economics. (2012) On the Horizon. Vol. 20, No. 3.
- 'Gender Trouble': Investigating Gender and Economic Democracy in Worker Cooperatives in the United States. (2012) Review of Radical Political Economics. Vol. 44, No. 1.
- Gender and Participation in Decision-Making in Labor-Managed Firms: The Context of the USA. (2011) Economic and Industrial Democracy. Vol. 32, No. 1, Feb.

Working Papers

- Do Labor-Managed Firms Foster Gender Equality? A Theory of Class and Gender (Article)
- Sandbox Economics: All I Know About Economics I Learned from My Kids (Book manuscript)

Presentations

- To Catch a Dollar: Microfinance Panel Discussion. (2012) Panelist. Duke Microfinance Leadership Initiative (DMLI), Duke University.
- Integrity in Aid Work: Microfinance Panel Discussion. (2011) Panelist. DMLI, Duke University.
- Duke Microfinance Leadership Initiative, Open House. (2009) Key note speaker. Duke University.
- Women's Economic Status. (2003) Speaker. The Women's Center, Duke University.
- Pence and Pounds: the Economics of Jane Austen's Time. (2002) Speaker. The Jane Austen Society of North America (JASNA), North Carolina chapter.
- Communication in Co-operatives (1998) With John Cline. Atlantic Canada Economics Association.

Honors and Awards

- Collaborative Research Grant. (2013) Duke University. Project on Women & Increasing STEM-Efficacy (W-ISE) with Mine Çetinkaya-Rundel
- Course Development Grant. (2008) Duke University. Study of Sexualities, "Interdisciplinary Debates: Transnational Sexualities"
- Research Grant. (2002) American University
- Dissertation Fellowship. (1999) American University
- Phi Beta Kappa. (1994) Beta of New York Chapter, membership inauguration