

EDWARD JAMES BALLEISEN

1 Wyndham Place
Durham, NC 27705
(919) 309-1641 (home)
(919) 684-2699 (work tel)
(919) 681-7670 (work fax)

Department of History
243B Carr Building
Duke University
Durham, NC 27708
eballeis@duke.edu

EDUCATION

Yale University: Ph.D. in American History, November 1995
M.Phil in American History, November 1992

Princeton University: A.B., Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs,
June 1987 (Graduated Summa Cum Laude, Phi Beta Kappa)

AREAS OF ACADEMIC CONCENTRATION

History of American Capitalism
American Legal History
American Political/Policy History
Regulatory Governance

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Appointments

Associate Professor, Department of History, Duke University, 2004 to present
Secondary Appointment, Sanford School of Public Policy, 2012 to present
Assistant Professor, Department of History, Duke University, 1997 to 2004
Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of History, University of the Witwatersrand, Aug. 1999
Postdoctoral Fellow, Department of History, University of the Witwatersrand, 1995-97
Temporary Junior Lecturer, Department of History, University of the Witwatersrand, 1993-95
Acting Instructor, Yale University, 1991

Long-term Institutional Leadership Positions and Affiliations

Founder and Director, Rethinking Regulation @ KIE, 2010 to present

Triangle-wide multidisciplinary faculty-graduate student working group that runs a seminar series, hosts an annual fellowship program, develops collaborative research projects, and integrates teaching about regulatory governance.

Founder and Co-Convener, Triangle Legal History Seminar, 2006-present

Regional workshop for faculty and graduate students to discuss pre-circulated research papers; 8 meetings per year.

Director, Doctoral Colloquium in Business History, Business History Conference, 2015-2018

Intensive two-day-long workshop preceding the BHC annual meeting for ten doctoral candidates working on aspects of business history, selected through a highly competitive international competition; participation by four senior scholars in the field in addition to the director

Senior Fellow, Kenan Institute for Ethics, Duke University, 2008 to present

International Fellow, Centre for Corporate Reputation, Oxford University, 2009 to present

MAJOR RESEARCH GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Bass Connections Grant of $18,000 for “Regulatory Disaster Scene Investigation,” 2014

Support for a undergraduate-graduate student research team, related to the larger project on “Recalibrating Risk: Crises, Perceptions, and Regulatory Change – with Lori Bennear, Summer 2014

Smith Richardson Foundation grant of $159,000, 2013-15

Support for “Recalibrating Risk: Crises, Perceptions, and Regulatory Change,” along with co-investigators Jonathan Wiener, Kim Krawiec, and Lori Bennear

Thomas McCraw Fellowship in United States Business History, Harvard Business School, 2013

Duke Provost’s Problem-Focused Interdisciplinary Research-Scholarship Teams (PFIRST)
Grants of $50,000, 2011-13

Support for interdisciplinary research of the Rethinking Regulation Working Group

Frederick Burkhardt Fellowship, American Council of Learned Societies, 2009-10

Support for a year’s leave at the National Humanities Center and two months summer salary.

Tobin Project Fellowship, Fall 2007 – provided for a semester’s leave.

Co-Lead Investigator on $315,000 in Grants to the Tobin Project from the Gilman and Ford Foundations, 2007

Support for research and conferences culminating in Government and Markets: Toward a New Theory of Economic Regulation.

Fellow, James Willard Hurst Legal History Institute, University of Wisconsin-Madison, 2001

University of the Witwatersrand Research Travel Grant, 1995

Yale History Department Mellon Research Fellowship, 1992

Yale University Fellowship, 1990-91

Andrew W. Mellon Fellowship in the Humanities, 1987-93

TEACHING AND PROGRAMATIC GRANTS

Duke Provost’s Undergraduate Team-Teaching Initiative (PUTTI) Grant of $10,000, 2012

Support for creation of interdisciplinary course, "The Modern Regulatory State"

Tobin Project Conference Support for Rethinking Regulation Group, $10,000, 2010-11

Co-Recipient of $70,000 Teagle Foundation Grant, 2009-10

Support for creation of parallel courses on the global history of the "rule of law" at Duke, Davidson College, and North Carolina State University

Grants totalling $10,000 to launch the Triangle Legal History Seminar, 2006-08

From UNC's Carolina Seminars Program, Duke Law School, Duke Vice Provost for Interdisciplinary Studies, Duke and NC State History Departments

$41,000 Duke Arts & Sciences Grant to Support Undergraduate Research in the History Department, for 5 years (with Kristen Neuschel), March, 2005

$42,500 Duke Graduate School Grant to Support Departmental Reforms Associated with the Carnegie Initiative on the Doctorate (with Simon Partner), Jan. 2005

$20,000 Dean's Grant to Support the Creation of a Legal History Concentration in the History Major (with Cynthia Herrup, Laura Edwards, and Felicia Kornbluh), Feb. 2003

Course Development Grant, Duke Center for Instructional Technology, for "American Business History," Sept. 2001

Duke University Markets & Management Program Course Development Grant ($5000), 2000

HONORS AND AWARDS

Founding Member of Tobin Project Network, Recipient of 2013 MacArthur Foundation Award for Creative and Effective Organizations

Henrietta Larson Award, 2009 (for the year's best article in Business History Review)

Duke University Howard D. Johnson Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, 2005

$5,000 Hunt Family Publication Award for Scenes from a Corporate Makeover, 2004

Named "Hunt Family Assistant Professor of History," 2000-04 (term-endowed chair)

George Washington Egleston Prize, Yale University, 1996 (best thesis in American History)

ACADEMIC PUBLICATIONS: HISTORY

Navigating Failure: Bankruptcy and Commercial Society in Antebellum America (Chapel Hill: University of North Carolina Press, March 2001)

"Rights of Way, Red Flags, and Safety Valves: Regulated Business Self-Regulation in America, 1850-1940," in Peter Collin, Gerd Bender, Stefan Ruppert, Margrit Seckelmann, and Michael Stolleis, eds., Regulierte Selbstregulierung in der westlichen

Welt des späten 19. und frühen 20. Jahrhunderts / Regulated Self-Regulation in the Western World in the Late 19th and the Early 20th Century (Frankfurt am Main: Klostermann, 2014), 75-126.

“The Ambiguities of Business Fraud and Entrepreneurial Reputation in Progressive-Era America,” Business History Review 87 (2013): 627-29.

“Private Cops on the Fraud Beat: The Limits of American Business Self-Regulation, 1895-1932,” Business History Review 83 (2009): 113-60

“Regulation,” 7500 word essay for The Oxford International Encyclopedia of Legal History (Oxford University Press, 2009), available at the link through Oxford Reference Online

"Bankruptcy and Bondage: The Ambiguities of Economic Freedom in the Civil War Era," in Steven Mintz, Robert Forbes, and John Stauffer, eds., The Problem of Evil: Slavery, Freedom, and the Ambiguities of American Reform (Amherst: University of Massachusetts Press, 2007), 276-86.

“Bankruptcy and the Entrepreneurial Ethos in Antebellum American Law,” Australian Journal of Legal History 8 (2004): 61-82

“Vulture Capitalism in Antebellum America: The 1841 Federal Bankruptcy Act and the Exploitation of Financial Distress,” Business History Review 70 (Winter 1996): 473-516.

ACADEMIC PUBLICATIONS: REGULATORY GOVERNANCE/PUBLIC POLICY

“Historical Perspective and Better Regulatory Governance: An Agenda for Institutional Reform,” with Elizabeth Brake. Regulation and Governance 8 (2014): 222-45 (first published online, 2012)

The Global Financial Crisis and Responsive Regulation: Some Avenues for Historical Inquiry,” University of British Columbia Law Review 44 (2011): 557-87.

Government and Markets: Toward a New Theory of Regulation, edited with David Moss (Cambridge University Press, 2009).

“Introduction” and “Conclusion” for Government and Markets, with David Moss (1-12, 538-44).

“The Prospects for Effective ‘Co-Regulation’ in the United States: A Historian’s View from the Early Twenty-First Century,” essay for Government and Markets (443-481).

“The Promise and Pitfalls of Co-Regulation: How Governments Can Draw on Private Governance for Public Purpose,” with Marc Eisner. In David Moss and John Cisternino, eds., New Perspectives on Regulation (The Tobin Project: Cambridge, Mass., 2009), 127-49.

Scenes from a Corporate Makeover: Columbia/HCA and Healthcare Fraud, 1992-2001 (Durham: Fuqua School of Business, June, 2003)

ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP IN PROGRESS: HISTORY

Business Fraud: An American History

(under advance contract with Princeton University Press; full manuscript under peer review; publication expected late 2015)

Oral History Interview with Sally Katzen, October and November, 2012

Katzen was General Counsel, Council on Wage and Price Stability in the Carter Administration, and former Administrator of the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs/Director of the Office of Management \ and Budget in the Clinton Administration

Shady Business: The History of White-Collar Crime (edited collection, with Hartmut Berghoff and Christopher McKenna)

“The Rise and Fall of Class Action Consumer Fraud Suits in the United States,” for Shady Business (with Anna Johns)

ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIP IN PROGRESS: REGULATORY GOVERNANCE

Business Regulation – Sole editor of a three-volume Research Collection (forthcoming with Elgar Publishing, winter 2015; includes a 43,000 word original introduction)

Policy Shock: Regulatory Responses to Nuclear Accidents, Offshore Oil Spill, and Financial Meltdowns – co-editor with Jonathan Wiener (Duke Law and Public Policy), Kimberly Krawiec (Duke Law), and Lori Benneer (Duke Environmental Economics) on an interdisciplinary volume, with contributions from scholars who work across the social sciences (political science, sociology, history, economics and psychology). Under consideration by Cambridge University Press.

BOOK REVIEWS

Review of Michael Pettit’s The Science of Deception: Psychology and Commerce in America, in Law & History Review 32 (2014): 215-17.

Review of Jonathan Levy’s Freaks of Fortune: The Emerging World of Capitalism and Risk in America, in American Historical Review 118 (2013): 1182-84

Review of Stephen Mihm’s A Nation of Counterfeiters: Capitalists, Con Men, and the Making of the United States, in Business History Review 82 (2008): 369-72

Review Essay on Essay on David Nasaw’s Andrew Carnegie and David Cannadine’s Mellon: An American Life, in Historically Speaking 9 (Jan./Feb. 2008): 39-43.

Review Essay on Roy Kreitner’s Calculating Promises: The Emergence of Modern American Contract Doctrine, in Law and Politics Book Review 17 (August, 2007), 705-12

Review of Rowena Olegario’s A Culture of Credit: Embedding Trust and Transparency in American Business, in Journal of American History 93 (2007): 304-305

- Review of Scott Sandage's Born Losers: A History of Failure in America, in Journal of the Early Republic 26 (2006): 139-42
- Review of Jocelyn Wills' Boosters, Hustlers, and Speculators: Entrepreneurial Culture and the Rise of Minneapolis and St. Paul, 1849-1883, in American History Review 111 (2006): 196-97
- Review Essay on T. H. Breen's The Marketplace of Revolution: How Consumer Politics Shaped American Independence, in Business History Review 29 (2005): 353-63
- Review of Bruce Mann's Republic of Debtors: Bankruptcy in the Age of American Independence, in Pennsylvania Magazine of History and Biography 128 (2004): 204-206
- Review of David Skeel's Debt's Dominion: A History of Bankruptcy Law in America, in Law and History Review 22 (2004): 190-91
- Review of Jonathan Glickstein's American Exceptionalism, American Anxiety: Wages, Competition and Degraded Labor in the Antebellum United States, in American Historical Review 108 (2003): 1448-49
- "The Celebrated Showman Unmasked," in Reviews in American History 30 (2002): 393-400 (Review Essay on Benjamin Reiss's The Showman and the Slave: Race, Death and Memory in Barnum's America).
- Review of V. Markham Lester's Victorian Insolvency: Bankruptcy, Imprisonment for Debt, and Company Winding-Up in Nineteenth-Century England, in Business History Review 70 (Fall 1996): 426-27

WRITINGS ON TEACHING AND ACADEMIC CAREERS

- "Submitting Proposals to the Business History Conference: A Guide to the Process," April 2014
- "Building a Doctoral Program in Business History," in Walter Friedman and Geoffrey Jones, eds., Teaching Business History: Insights and Debates (Cambridge, 2012), 54-67
- "The Career Question in History," Perspectives (News Magazine of the American Historical Association) 49 (Dec. 2011): 20-22
- "Reshaping Doctoral Education for the Next Generation: An Update on History's Participation in the Carnegie Initiative on the Doctorate," Perspectives 44 (March 2006): 49-51

WEBSITES

Regulatory Oral History Hub, with William Goldsmith and Elizabeth Brake

Annotated gateway to oral histories that engage regulatory institutions and techniques of governance, with a focus on the United States. Launched in 2014.

“Legal History on the Web.” with Mitchell Fraas and Ashton Merck

Gateway to digital resources on legal history, with a particular focus on English-language websites. Launched in 2008 with Mitchell Fraas; most recently updated in 2014 with the assistance of Ashton Merck.

OPINION PIECES, MEDIA APPEARANCES, VIDEOTAPED LECTURES

“The First ‘Voice of Wall Street’ a Study in Risk.” Echoes Business History Blog, Bloomberg News, June 22, 2012

“Bankruptcy Bill Is Where It Belongs: Shelved,” American Banker, Dec. 7, 2001, p. 13

“The Great Crash,” Online Seminar with History Teachers through the National Humanities Center, 2011, 2014

“Bankrupt: Maxed out in America,” American RadioWorks, April 2006

"The Social History of Credit," Invited Guest, Odyssey Radio Show, WBEZ, Chicago, March 2005

Videotaped Segments for “Learn More, Teach More,” a web-based project to disseminate mini-lectures on American history to North Carolina school teachers and students, 2003, 2006

“Creative Destruction and the Business Cycle”

“The Evolution of the Twentieth-Century American Corporation: Parts 1-3”

Participant in Duke Law School's "Contracts Video Project," 2001

KENAN INSTITUTE PANEL DISCUSSIONS ON REGULATORY POLICY

“Rethinking Regulatory Capture: A Conversation with David Moss, United States Representative David Price, and Joseph Smith,” Feb. 20, 2014

“Regulating the Regulators: A Conversation with Sally Katzen and John Graham,” Oct. 24, 2012

“Regulatory Innovation at the EPA: The Challenges of Climate Change,” April 18, 2011

“Assessing the Outcome of Financial Reform,” Nov. 11, 2010

TEACHING PROFILE

Undergraduate Lecture Courses Designed and Taught at Duke

The Modern Regulatory State

American Business History

Modern American Legal History

America from Colonial Times to 1877 (alone and with Peter Wood)

Sectional Conflict, Civil War, and Reconstruction

The Democratization of American Culture

Undergraduate Seminars Designed and Taught at Duke

Regulating American Business, 1800-2000
Law and American Society, 1750-1900 (undergraduate seminar)
Anglo-American Legal Traditions, 1600-1900 (with Cynthia Herrup)
Entrepreneurs in American History
Senior Honors Seminar
The Meanings of American Freedom

Graduate Seminars and Collective Independent Studies Designed and Taught at Duke

Readings in the History Modern Political Economy
Readings in Regulatory Governance/Risk Regulation
(graduate/professional seminar with Duke Law Professor Jonathan Wiener)
Readings in the History of Transatlantic Capitalism (collective independent study)
Readings in the History/Theory of Regulatory Governance (collective independent study)
The Rule of Law in World History (graduate/undergraduate seminar)
Readings in World/Comparative Legal History, 1400- present
The Culture of American Capitalism, 1750-1900

Graduate Mentorship

Director or Co-Director of 5 completed Ph.D. dissertations

Daniel Levinson-Wilk, "Cliff Dwellers: Modern Service in New York City, 1800-1945" (2005 – Runner-up for Krooss Dissertation Prize, Business History Conference); now Associate Professor of History, SUNY-FIT
Deborah Breen, "Empire of Things: Material Culture and the Americanization of Australia, 1850-1890" (2006); now Senior Lecturer, Boston University
Paul Husbands, "The People's President": Letter Writing, the Presidency and Popular Politics in Late-Nineteenth to Mid-Twentieth-Century America" (2007); now Senior Research Analyst, Waitangi Tribunal, Wellington, New Zealand
Arthur Mitchell Fraas, "'They Have Travailed into a Wrong Latitude': The Laws of England, Indian Settlements, and the British Imperial Constitution, 1726-1773" (2011); now Curator, Digital Research Services and Co-Director, Digital Humanities Initiative, University of Pennsylvania
Fahad Bishara, "An Ocean of Debt: Histories of Commerce and Obligation in the Indian Ocean, 1850-1940" (2012 – Runner-up for Krooss Dissertation Prize, Business History Conference), now Assistant Professor of History, College of William & Mary

Member of 16 additional completed Ph.D. committees (one in Business Management; one in Cultural Anthropology)

Supervisor of 2 Terminal Master's Theses (one in progress)

Advisor for 1 Duke Law Review Note (in progress)

Member of 11 Ph.D. committees in progress (one in Environmental Politics; one in Public Administration; one in Public Policy), one as Director

Undergraduate Honors Thesis and Internship Supervisions

Director of the Duke History Department Senior Honors Program, 2002-05

Supervisor of 9 Honors Theses, two in Public Policy (two in progress)

Supervisor of 5 Sanford School Public Policy Internships (linked to Rethinking Regulation)

Undergraduate Student Awards under My Supervision

Franklin Sacha, Gilder-Lehman Fellow, 2012

Matthew Tesarfreund, Durden Prize, 2011, best research paper by a Duke junior or senior, for his essay, "The Bankers Know Best: How Regulatory Policy Shaped the Rise and Fall of the Credit Default Swap Market."

Lindsay Cooper, Honorable Mention, Middlesworth Competition, 2009, for her paper, "Duke University's Board of Trustees: A University-Industrial Complex"

Kendall Dabaghi, Honorable Mention, Middlesworth Competition, 2009, for his paper, "It Pays to Advertise: Decentralization, International Expansion, and GM's Advertising Practices in the Early 20th Century"

Madeline McKeever, Honorable Mention, Middlesworth Competition, 2007, for her paper, "The James Fowler Rusling Papers: Navigating Civil War Pension Claims in Postbellum America"

Christopher Lin, Honorable Mention, Middlesworth Competition, 2005, for his paper, "Lessons in Company Image: The American Tobacco Company in Asia."

Jeffrey Stern, Honorable Mention, Middlesworth Competition, 2005, for his paper, "Organizing Expansion: How the J. Walter Thompson Company Came to Reflect the Organizational Structure and Operation of Its Client during the General Motors Expansion into Latin America"

Tyler William Will, Middlesworth Prize, 2003 for the best senior thesis using Duke archival collections, for "The Powers That Built the Research Triangle Park: Government, Industry, and Academia in North Carolina's High-Technology Park"

Stacie Taranto, Honorable Mention, Middlesworth Competition, 2001, for her thesis, "The Homosocial World of Antebellum Plantation Mistresses" (now Assistant Professor of History, Ramapo College)

Summer Teaching Programs

Director, "Globalization and the Varieties of Capitalism," Jessie Ball duPont Faculty Seminar, National Humanities Center, June 2014

Intensive three-week multidisciplinary seminar for seventeen faculty members from liberal arts colleges, representing various disciplines from the humanities and social sciences

Facilitator, "Embodied Presidency" Workshops on Thomas Jefferson, 2007 and 2008

Intensive program at the North Carolina School of Science and Math for NC high school teachers on using primary sources about Jefferson and Monticello; included site visit to UVA Library and Monticello

Facilitator, Intensive Workshop for NC High School Teachers, NC School of Science & Math, 2006

Facilitator, History Connect Summer Workshops, Durham Public Schools, 2003-04

Facilitator, Summer History Workshop for Durham School of the Arts Teachers, 2001

Co-Director, Hosei at Duke. Summer 2000

Supervised and cotaught intensive introductory course in American history to visiting Japanese undergraduates

SELECTED RECENT SCHOLARLY PRESENTATIONS

- “Wrestling with the Flim-Flam Man: Business Fraud and the Vexations of Self-Regulation in Post-World War II America,” Sorbonne University-Paris 3, Oct. 15, 2014
- “Trajectories of Crisis-Driven Regulatory Policy,” Conference on “Improving Risk Regulation: From Crisis Response to Learning and Innovation,” Annual Meeting of the International Risk Governance Council, in conjunction with the OECD and Rethinking Regulation @ KIE, Paris, France, Oct. 13, 2014
- “The Long Arc of Business Fraud in America,” Conference on “Shady Business: The History of White-Collar Crime,” German Historical Institute, Washington, D. C., Sept. 26, 2014
- “Chipping away at Caveat Emptor: American Fraud Regulation in the New Deal Era,” Policy History Conference, Columbus, Ohio, June 6, 2014.
- “American Fraud Policy in the Age of Deregulation,” Business History Conference, Frankfurt, Germany, March 14, 2014
- “Progressive Era Business Fraud and the Contingency of Corporate Reputation,” Said Business School, Oxford University, Oct. 16, 2013
- “Building a Doctoral Program in Business History,” Harvard Business School Workshop, “Business History: Incorporating New Research into Course Development,” Boston, June 28, 2012
- “Business Regulation,” Roundtable Participant, Annual Meeting of the Business History Conference, Philadelphia, March 29, 2012
- “Jobs for Historians: Approaching the Crisis from the Demand Side,” Roundtable Participant, Annual Meeting of the American Historical Association, Chicago, Jan. 12, 2012
- “Rights of Way, Red Flags, and Safety Valves: Regulated Business Self-Regulation in America, 1850-1940,” Conference on Regulated Business Self-Regulation in the Western World, 1870-1940, Max Planck Institute for Western European Legal History, Bad Homburg, Germany, July 10, 2011
- “Business Fraud on the Entrepreneurial Margin,” Paper presented to the University of Pennsylvania Economic History Workshop, Oct. 7, 2010
- “Regulatory Failures and the Global Financial Crisis: Some Historical Puzzles,” Paper presented to the University of British Columbia Law School Workshop, “Responsive Regulation in Theory and Practice,” Sept. 30, 2010
- Invited Speaker, “Emerging Themes and Methods of Humanities Research: Discussion with ACLS Fellows,” Annual Meeting of the American Council of Learned Societies, Philadelphia, May 7, 2010

“Swindle, Swindle, Everywhere’: The Social and Psychological Dynamics of Business Fraud in American History,” Culture of the Market Conference on “Emotion, Corporate Reputation, and the Market,” Said Business School, Oxford University, March 16, 2010.

Roundtable Participation, “Whither Graduate Education? The Education of Historians Report after Five Years,” Annual Meeting of the American Historical Association, San Diego, Jan. 8, 2010

“Dodgy Business: A Historical Framework for Understanding Fraud and White-Collar Crime,” with Christopher McKenna, Business History Conference/European Business History Association, Milan, June 2009

“Toward New Theories and Methods,” Session Moderator, “Government and Markets: Ferment in the Face of Crisis,” Interdisciplinary Conference convened by the Tobin Project, White Oak, Florida, April 25, 2009.

“Business Self-Regulation over the Long Haul: The Better Business Bureaus and the Policing of Deceptive Marketing, 1933-1975,” Annual Meeting of the American Society for Legal History, Ottawa, Canada, November 15, 2008

“Regulatory Purpose,” Facilitator of session at “Government and Markets: Toward a New Theory of Economic Regulation,” Interdisciplinary Conference convened by the Tobin Project, White Oak, Florida, Feb. 1, 2008.

“Prospects for Economic “Self-Regulation” in the United States: A Historian’s View from the Early Twenty-First Century,” paper discussed at the session, “Regulatory Strategy,” “Government and Markets,” Feb. 3, “Government and Markets,” Feb. 3, 2008.

DUKE UNIVERSITY SERVICE

Major Service on University-Wide Committees

Chair, Academic Programs Committee, 2014-15

Considers all proposals for new degree programs and all external reviews of departments and university institutes; also serves as primary faculty sounding board on academic policy matters for the Provost.

Faculty Member, University Priorities Committee (2014-15)

Faculty Member, Board of Trustees Committee on Academic Affairs (2014-15)

Member, Scholars @ Duke Steering Committee, 2014-15

Faculty Member, Academic Programs Committee, 2011-13

Member, Arts and Sciences Committee on Standards for Online Courses, 2012

Elected Member, Duke Academic Council, 2010-11, 2012-13, 2014-15

Faculty Member, Library Council, 2007-10

Major Departmental or Institute Service

Interim Director of Graduate Studies, History Department, Spring 2005

Oversaw the implementation of curricular reforms for the doctoral program, including: a new approach to admissions, with decisions made by a committee rather than caucuses; summer research awards for rising second-year students; and rededication of faculty to substantive reviews of student progress. Completed surveys and analyses of current students and alumni. Along with Simon Partner, guided the proposal to replace the preliminary examination with a portfolio system. Regularized procedures for the DGS, with detailed guides to various duties/obligations.

Member, Kenan Institute for Ethics Faculty Council, 2010-
Member, Nicholas Institute for Environmental Policy Solutions Faculty Council, 2014-15
Chair, Selection Committee for Charles Lamb Fellow in Regulatory Governance, 2014-
Elected Member of History Department Executive Committee, 1998-2000, 2003-05, 2008-09, 2010- 13
Chair, Renewal Committee for Philip Stern, 2010
Member of Carnegie Initiative on the Doctorate Leadership Team, History Department, 2003-05

Additional University/Departmental Service

Member, Arts & Sciences Committee on Faculty Research, 2008-11
Steering Committee Member, Kenan Institute for Ethics Initiative on "Changing Institutional Cultures," 2005-09
Faculty Adviser, Chess Club, 2007-2010
Member, Search Committee for the Mackowski Chair in Organizational Ethics, 2006-07
Member, Search Committee for Director, Hartman Center for Sales, Advertising, and Marketing History, Perkins Library, 2005
Member, Academic Integrity Committee, NCAA Review Process, 2004-05
Member of Renewal Committee for Elizabeth Fenn, 2004
Research Ethics Representative, History Department, 2003-05
Member, Arts and Sciences Information Technology Committee, 2003-05
Member of Arts & Sciences Writing Advisory Board, 2000-01
Member of Middlesworth Award Committee, 2000
Member of History Department Undergraduate Honors Committee, 2000, 2002, 2006
Member of History Department Graduate Committee, 1997-98

OTHER PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

The Tobin Project

Steering Committee Member, 2005-09
Chair, Government and Markets Working Group, 2005-2009

The Tobin Project is a non-profit organization that seeks to reconnect the nation's policy-makers (chiefly members of Congress, but also executive officials, Governors and state legislators), with the nation's leading progressive academics.

Business History Conference

Faculty Participant, Doctoral Colloquium on Business History, 2014-15

Trustee, 2011-14 (Elected Position)
Chair, Annual Meeting Program Committee, 2014 (held jointly with the German Society for Business History, in Frankfurt)
Member, Print Media Oversight Committee, 2011-14 (Chair, 2013-14; oversaw decision to shift Enterprise & Society from Oxford to Cambridge University Press)
Member, Search Committee for Editor of Enterprise & Society (2012-13)
Chair, Grants and Prizes Committee, 2010-11
Member, Newcomen Prize Committee (best article in Enterprise & Society), 2006-08 (Chair, 2008)

American Society of Legal History

Member, Hurst Fellowship Selection Committee, 2007
Member, Annual Meeting Program Committee, 2002-03

Editorial Board Memberships

Law and History Review, 2005-
Business History Review, 2012-
Enterprise & Society, 2014-
Editorial Collective, Yale Journal of Law and the Humanities, 1989-91

Manuscript/Proposal Reviews and Service as Academic Consultant for:

MacArthur Foundation, National Science Foundation, National Humanities Center, Canadian Social Science Research Council, National Museum of American History, Law and History Review, Journal of the Early Republic, Pacific Historical Review, Journal of American History, Business History Review, Regulation & Governance, Journal of Cultural Economy; Law & Social Inquiry; Business History; Journal of Policy History; University of Missouri Press, University of Chicago Press, Johns Hopkins University Press, Blackwell-Wiley Publishing, Oxford University Press, Copley Publishing

Government Service

Member of Fulbright Joint Working Group, South Africa and the United States, 1995-97

American Embassy and South African Ministry of Education. Discussions on the creation of a binational Commission to administer Fulbright exchanges between the United States and South Africa. Author of the JWG's report recommending the setting up of such an institution.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Historical Association
Organization of American Historians
Business History Conference
American Society for Legal History

REFERENCES

Daniel Carpenter, Freed Professor of Government, Harvard (dcarpenter@gov.harvard.edu)

David Brion Davis, Sterling Professor of History Emeritus, Yale University

(david.b.davis@yale.edu)

Daniel Ernst, Professor of Law, Georgetown Law Center (ernst@law.georgetown.edu)

Lawrence Friedman, Kirkwood Professor of Law, Stanford University (lmf@stanford.edu)

Robert W. Gordon, Professor of Law, Stanford University

(rwgordon@stanford.edu)

Richard John, Professor, Columbia School of Journalism (rrjohn@columbia.edu)

Stanley Katz, Lecturer with Rank of Full Professor, Woodrow Wilson School, Princeton

University (snkatz@princeton.edu)

Alexander Keyssar, Sterling Professor of History and Social Policy, Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University (alex_keyssar@harvard.edu)

Naomi Lamoreaux, Professor of Economics, Law, and History, Yale University

naomi.lamoreaux@yale.edu