

Curriculum Vitae

Name: John D. French
History Department
Durham, NC 27708-0719
E-mail: jdfrench@duke.edu

Education: 1979-1985 Ph.D. Yale University (Advisor: Emília Viotti da Costa)
1977-1978 M.A. University of Pittsburgh (Advisor: Magnus Morner)
1971-1975 B.A. Magna cum laude, Amherst College

Professional Experience/Employment History

2013-14: Douglas Southall Freeman Professor at the University of Richmond
2009-present: Professor of History and African and African Studies, Duke University
2007 to 2009: Professor of History, Duke University
1992-2007: Tenured as Associate Professor in 1995 after joining the Duke faculty in 1992
1988-1992 Assistant Professor, Latin American History, Florida International University
1985-1987 Assistant Professor, Latin American History, Utah State University

Major Fellowships, Grants, Awards, and Honors

2013-15 Awarded $150,000 over a two year term for a John Hope Franklin Humanities Lab entitled "Global Brazil" involving 11 faculty and a dedicated program of research, pedagogy, digital initiatives, and vertical integration. Co-director with Paul Baker (Nicholas School of the Environment) and Esther Gabara (Romance Studies and Art, Art History, and Visual Studies).

2013-16 Grants totaling $175,000 from the Office of Global Strategy and Programs, Duke University, for the "Duke Brazil Initiative," codirected with Paul Baker (Nicholas School) and Antonio Arce (CLACS).

2013-14: Awarded the distinguished visiting position Professor at the University of Richmond as the Douglas Southall Freeman Professor of History.

2013 recipient of a Franklin Humanities Institute Faculty Book Manuscript Workshop grant to facilitate a day-long assessment by two specialist scholars from beyond the Triangle, an acquisition editor, and local colleagues held on May 1, 2014.

2013 Grants of $10,050 from multiple Duke sources for a Latin American Labor History Conference entitled "Heroes or Hacks? Media Cultures, Politics, and Democracy in Latin America," April 18-20, 2013. Co-organized with Vanessa Freije (Duke ABD) and Dr. Bryan Pitts. <http://sites.duke.edu/mediaconference/>

2009 Awarded the Dean's Award for Excellence in Mentoring from the Graduate School of Duke University in recognition of a faculty member for his training of graduate students. http://www.gradschool.duke.edu/our_faculty/french_john.html

2007-2008 grants totaling $18,000 for a May 2008 international research conference at Duke entitled "Nurturing Hope, Deepening Democracy, and Combating Inequalities in Brazil: An Assessment of Lula's Presidency." Additional Brazilian support from from the Conselho Nacional de Desenvolvimento Social (Brasília) and the Fundação Perseu Abramo (São Paulo).

2007 Spring Fellow, Helen Kellogg Institute for International Studies, University of Notre Dame.

2006 Principal Investigator (PI) and coordinator of the successful $2.4 million four year grant application designating the Carolina and Duke Latin American Consortium as a federal Title VI National Resource Center with FLAS fellowships.

2005-2006 Fellow at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars.

2002 Awarded a U.S. Department of State Visitor Grant for a program in Rio de Janeiro and Recife Brazil, November 23-28, 2002.

2003 Principal Investigator (PI) on the Duke side for the successful $1.65 million grant designating the Carolina-Duke Latin American Studies Consortium as a federal Title VI NRC with FLAS fellowships.

2000 Awarded a 12 month Fulbright-Hays Fellowship for research in Northeastern Brazil

2001 Award "in acknowledgment of and with much gratitude for your contribution in helping to restore democracy in Chile," from Juan Gabriel Valdés, Permanent Representative of Chile to the United Nations

1998-1999 American Philosophical Society Research grant for travel to São Paulo, Brazil.

1998 Co-Director of a $75,000 National Historical Publications and Records Commission grant

1995-1996 National Humanities Center Fellowship

1993 Grants totaling $54,600 for a 1993-1994 Duke project: "Labor, Free Trade, and Economic Integration in the Americas: National Labor Union Responses to a Transnational World" from the North-South Center of the University of Miami, the Canadian Embassy, and the Vice Provost for Academic and International Affairs at Duke University. Co-directed with Russell E. Smith (Washburn University).

1991 Grant-in-Aid, American Council of Learned Societies

1991 Travel to Collections Grant, National Endowment for the Humanities

1991 Advanced Area Research Grant from the Social Science Research Council

1981-1983 Fellowship, Social Science Research Council

1981-1983 Learning Fellowship on Social Change, Inter-American Foundation

1981-1982 Fulbright-Hays Fellowship

Monographs

1. The Brazilian Workers' ABC: Class Conflict and Alliances in Modern São Paulo (Chapel Hill: The University of North Carolina Press, 1992). 378 pages. Portuguese edition 1995.
2. Drowning in Laws: Labor Law and Brazilian Political Culture (Chapel Hill: The University of North Carolina Press, June 2004). 233 pages. Portuguese edition 2001.
3. Lula's Politics of Cunning: From Trade Unionism to the Brazilian Presidency. Book manuscript to be submitted fall 2015.

Edited Books

1. Associate Editor with Eileen Boris, Julie Greene, Joan Sangster, and Shelton Stromquist, Workers, Across the Americas: The Transnational Turn in Labor History, Leon Fink (Editor) (New York: Oxford University Press, 2011).
2. Co-edited with Daniel James, The Gendered Worlds of Latin American Women Workers: From Household and Factory to the Union Hall and Ballot Box (Durham:1997).

Scholarly Articles and Book Chapters (Referred)

1. "Social History and the Study of 'Great Men'? The Hispanic American Historical Review, William Spence Robertson (1872-1956), and the Disciplinary Debate about Biography," Anuario Colombiano de Historia Social y de la Cultura, Vol. 40 Supplement 1(2013), 99-138.
2. French, John D., and Matthew Lymburner. "Neoliberalism in Latin America." In, Oxford Bibliographies Online (2012). 15,000 word peer-reviewed guide and annotated bibliography.
3. Co-author with Alexandre Fortes, "Nurturing Hope, Deepening Democracy, and Combating Inequalities in Brazil: Lula, the Workers' Party, and Dilma Rousseff's 2010 Election as President," Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas Vol 9 #1 (2012), 7-28. Portuguese version in Tempo Social Vol. 24 #1 (2012), 201-228.
4. "Another World History Is Possible: Reflections on the Translocal, Transnational, and Global," forthcoming in Workers, Across the Americas: The Transnational Turn in Labor History, Ed. Leon Fink (New York: Oxford University Press, 2011), 3-11.
5. "The Professor and the Worker: Using Brazil to Better Understand Latin America's Plural Left," In: Rethinking Intellectuals in Latin America, Bret Gustavson and Mabel Moraña, eds. (Frankfurt/Madrid: Iberoamericana/Vervuert, 2010), 91-113.
6. "How the Not-So-Powerless Prevail: Industrial Labor Market Demand and the Contours of Militancy in Mid-Twentieth Century São Paulo, Brazil," Hispanic American Historical Review, Vol. 90 #1 (February 2010), 109-142. Published in Portuguese: Cadernos AEL Vol. 18 #30 (2013), 197-242. Awarded $100 for the best article prize by the Brazil Section of the Latin American Studies Association in 2012.
7. "Understanding the Politics of Latin America's Plural Lefts (Chávez/Lula): Social Democracy, Populism, and Convergence on the Path to a Post-Neoliberal World," Third World

- Quarterly*, Volume 30 #2 (2009), 349-370. Also published in Latin America's Left Turns: Politics, Policies and Trajectories of Change edited by Maxwell A. Cameron and Eric Hershberg (Boulder: Lynne Rienner, 2010), 41-60.
8. "Os Trabalhos Arquivísticos Voltado Ao Mundo dos Trabalhadores: Avanços e Desafios Em América Latina Desde 1992" [Archival Work Directed at the World of Workers: Advances and Challenges in Latin America since 1992], In O Mundo dos Trabalhadores e Seus Arquivos edited by José Antonio Marques and Inez Terezinha Stampa, (Rio de Janeiro/São Paulo: Arquivo Nacional/CUT, 2009), 83-101.
 9. Co-author with Kristin Wintersteen (Duke University), "Crafting an International Legal Regime for Worker Rights: Assessing the Literature since the 1999 Seattle WTO Protests," International Labor and Working Class History, Volume 75 #1 (Spring 2009), 145-168.
 10. Co-author with Daniel James (Indiana University), "The Travails of Doing Labor History: The Restless Wanderings of John Womack Jr.," Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas, Volume 4 # 2 (2007), 95-116.
 11. "The Laboring and Middle-Class Peoples of Latin America and the Caribbean: Historical Trajectories and New Research Directions," in: Global Labour History: A State of the Art, Jan Lucassen, ed. (Bern: Peter Lange, 2006), 289-333. Portuguese edition, 2001.
 12. Co-author with Alexandre Fortes, "Another World Is Possible: The Rise of the Brazilian Workers' Party and the Prospects for Lula's Government," Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas, Volume 2 #3 (2005), 13-31.
 13. "Proclamando Direitos, Metendo o Pau, e Lutando pelos Direitos: A Questão Social como Caso de Polícia, 1920-1964 [Proclaiming Rights, Applying the Rod, and Fighting for Rights: The Social Question as a Police Matter, 1920-1964]," In: Silvia Hunold Lara and Joseli Mendonça, eds., Direitos e Justiça no Brasil: Ensaio de História Social (Campinas: Editora da UNICAMP, 2006), 379-416.
 14. "From the Suites to the Streets: The Unexpected Re-emergence of the 'Labor Question,' 1994-1999," Labor History, Vol. 43 #3 (2002), 285-304.
 15. "'They Don't Wear Black-Tie: Intellectuals and Workers in Modern São Paulo, 1958-1981," International Labor and Working Class History #59 (Spring 2001), 60-80.
 16. "The Latin American Labor Studies Boom," International Review of Social History, 45 (2000), 279-310. Also published in Spain, Korea, and Austria (2000-01).
 17. "The Missteps of Anti-Imperialist Reason: Bourdieu, Wacquant, and Hanchard's Orpheus and Power," Theory, Culture, & Society, 17 #1 (2000), 107-128. Portuguese ed.: 2002.
 18. "Translation, Diasporic Dialogue, and the Errors of Pierre Bourdieu and Loïc Wacquant," Nepantla, Volume 4 # 1 (2003), 375-389. Portuguese edition: 2002.
 19. "Drowning in Laws but Starving (for Justice?): Brazilian Labor Law and the Workers' Quest to Realize the Imaginary," Political Power and Social Theory, Volume 12 (1998), pp. 177-214.
 20. "The Origin of Corporatist State Intervention in Brazilian Industrial Relations, 1930-1934: A Critique of the Literature," Luso-Brazilian Review, Vol. 28 #2 (Fall 1991), pp. 13-26. Portuguese edition: 2000.
 21. "Commercial Footsoldiers of the Empire: Foreign Merchant Politics in Tampico, Mexico 1861-1866," The Americas, Vol. 46 #3 (January 1990), 291-314.
 22. "Industrial Workers and the Birth of the Populist Republic in Brazil, 1945-1946," Latin American Perspectives, 16 #4 Issue 62 (1989), 5-27. Published in Argentina: 1998.
 23. Co-authored with Mary Lynn Pedersen, "Women and Working Class Mobilization in Postwar São Paulo, Brazil 1945-1948," Latin American Research Review, Vol. 24, #3 (Fall 1989), 99-125. Published as book chapter (1997); Portuguese edition: 2000.
 24. Co-authored with Daniel James, "Squaring the Circle: Women's Factory Labor, Gender Ideology, and Necessity," an historiographical introduction to The Gendered Worlds of Latin American Women Workers (1997), pp. 1-30.
 25. Co-authored with Daniel James, "Oral History, Identity Formation, and Working-Class Mobilization," a methodological conclusion to The Gendered Worlds of Latin American Women Workers (1997), pp. 297-313.

26. Co-authored with Magnus Mörner and Julia Fawaz de Viñuela, "Comparative Approaches to Latin American History," Latin American Research Review, Vol. 17 #2 (1982), pp. 55-89.
27. "Workers and the Rise of Adhemarista Populism in São Paulo, Brazil 1945-1947," Hispanic American Historical Review, Vol. 68 #1 (1988), 1-43. Portuguese edition: 1987.
28. "Riqueza, poder e mão-de-obra numa economia de subsistencia: São Paulo, 1596-1625 [Wealth, Power, and Labor in a Subsistence Economy, 1596-1625]," Revista do Arquivo Municipal (São Paulo), Ano 45 #195 (Janeiro a Dezembro de 1982), pp. 79-107.
29. "'Reaping the Whirlwind:' The Origins of the Allegheny County Greenback Labor Party in 1877," Western Pennsylvania Historical Magazine, Vol. 64 #2 (1981), pp. 97-119.

Review Essays and Scholarly Communications

1. Co-authored with Alexandre Fortes, "When the Plumber(s) Come to Fix a Country: Doing Labor History in Brazil," International Labor and Working Class History, Vol. 82 #1 (Fall 2012): 1-10.
1. "'Kill the Americans!' The U.S. Government, Citizens, and Companies in Latin America from the Panama Canal to Plan Colombia," Radical History Review #112 (Winter 2012), 201-208.
2. Co-author with Antonio Negro of a review essay on "Lula, Filho do Brasil" [Lula, Son of Brazil] directed by Fábio Barreto (Rio de Janeiro: 2009), A Contracorriente Vol. 8 #3 (Spring 2012), 377-394.
3. "Lula, the 'New Unionism,' and the Brazilian Workers' Party: How Workers Came to Change the World, or at Least Brazil," Latin American Politics and Society, Vol. 51 #4 (2009), 157-169.
4. Co-author with Daniel James (Indiana University), "Polemics and an 'Army of One': Responding to John Womack Jr.," Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas Volume 5 #2 (May 2008), 125-129.
5. "Women in Post-Revolutionary Mexico: Towards a New Feminist Political History," Latin American Politics and Society Vol. 50 #2 (Summer 2008), 175-184.
6. "Learning the Craft: The Role of Graduate Mentoring," AHA Perspectives, Vol. 45 #8 (November 2007).
7. "Wal-Mart, Retail Supremacy, and the Relevance of Political Economy: The Intermestic Challenge of Contemporary Research (Academic, Agitational, and Constructive)," Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas, Volume 4 #1 (2007), 33-40.
8. "North American Free Trade Agreement," In: Eric Arnesen, ed. Encyclopedia of US Labor and Working Class History (New York: Routledge, 2006).
9. "Falsas Dicotomias entre Escravidão e Liberdade: Continuidades e Rupturas na Formação Política e Social do Brasil Moderno [False Dichotomies between Slavery and Freedom: Continuities and Ruptures in the Social and Political Formation of Modern Brazil]," In: Douglas Cole Libby and Júnia Ferreira Furtado, eds. Trabalho Livre, Trabalho Escravo: Brasil e Europa, Séculos XVII e XIX (São Paulo: Anablume, 2006), 75-96.
10. "Trade Unionism and the Fight to Reshape the World that Trade Built: International Worker Rights in a Globalizing World, 1959-1999," in: Labour and New Social Movements in a Globalizing World System (Linz, Austria: ITH, 2004), 155-178.
11. "Labor and NAFTA: Nationalist Reflexes and Transnational Imperatives in North America," In: Labour and Globalisation: Results and Prospects edited by Ronaldo Munck (Liverpool: University of Liverpool Press, 2004), pp. 149-65. Mexican edition: 1995.
12. "Research Note: The Robert J. Alexander Interview Collection," Hispanic American Historical Review, vol. 84, #2 (2004), 313-324.
13. "'Not all of History is Recorded in the Books Supplied to School Children': 'Pale History Books' and the Hidden Afro-Diasporic Dialogue between the United States and Brazil, 1914-1966." In Resistência e Inclusão: História, Cultura, Cidadania Afrodescendentes, edited by Denise Pini Rosalem de Fonseca (Rio de Janeiro, 2003), Vol. 1, pp. 19-4
14. "Towards Effective Transnational Labor Solidarity Between NAFTA North and NAFTA South," Labor History, Vol. 44 #4 (November 2002), 451-459.
15. "Beyond Words, Without Words, and Finding Words: Responding to the Catastrophe," In: The Aims of Argument: A Text and Reader, by Timothy W. Crusius and Carolyn E. Channell, a

- college textbook published by McGraw-Hill Companies, 2002.
16. Sharing the Riches of Afro-Brazilian History and Culture: Undergraduate and Graduate Teaching Syllabi and Handouts (Durham: Duke African and African-American Studies Program, Carolina and Duke Latin American Consortium 2002). 167 pages.
 17. Co-authored with Alexandre Fortes, Urban Labor History in Twentieth Century Brazil (Albuquerque: Latin American Institute/University of New Mexico, 1998).
 18. "Comercio y Trabajo en el Mundo: Hacia la Cláusula Social," Nueva Sociedad (Caracas), #148 (1997), pp. 142-157. Portuguese edition: 2006.
 19. Co-editor with Jefferson Cowie and Scott Littlehale, Labor and NAFTA: A Bibliography Latin American Labor Studies Bibliography #5 (Miami: Center for Labor Research and Studies of Florida International University, 1996).
 20. Co-editor with Jefferson Cowie, Mark Healey, and Scott Littlehale, Labor, Economic Integration, and Transnationalism: A Miscellaneous Bibliography Latin American Labor Studies Bibliography #4 (Miami: Center for Labor Research and Studies of Florida International University, 1996).
 21. Co-authored with Leon Fink, "The Future of the International Labor Question From the Inside Looking Out," Labour/Le Travail #37 (Spring 1996), pp. 1-11.
 22. and Jefferson Cowie, "The NAFTA Labor Side Accord: A Textual Analysis," Duke-UNC Program in Latin American Studies Working Paper #11 (Durham: Duke-UNC Program in Latin American Studies, 1994). In Spanish: 1995.
 23. and Russell E. Smith, Labor, Free Trade, and Economic Integration in the Americas: National Labor Union Responses to a Transnational World Latin American Labor Occasional Paper #21 (Miami: Center for Labor Research and Studies of Florida International University, 1995).
 24. Editor, Latin American Labor Studies Syllabi Latin American Labor Occasional Paper #8 (Miami: Center for Labor Research and Studies of Florida International University, 1995).
 25. Co-authored with Jefferson Cowie and Scott Littlehale, Labor and NAFTA: A Briefing Book (Durham: Duke-UNC Program in Latin American Studies, 1995). 275 pages.
 26. "The Declaration of Philadelphia and the Global Social Charter of the United Nations, 1944-1945," In: Werner Sengenberger and Duncan Campbell, eds. International Labour Standards in the Globalized Economy: Issues, Challenges, and Perspectives (Geneva: International Labor Organization, 1994), pp. 19-26.
 27. "The Populist Gamble of Getúlio Vargas in 1945: Political and Ideological Transitions in Brazil," a chapter in Latin America in the 1940s: War and Postwar Adjustments edited by David Rock (Berkeley: University of California Press, 1994), pp. 141-165.
 28. Editor, Latin American Labor Studies Bibliography (1992) Latin American Labor Studies Bibliography #4 (Miami: Center for Labor Research and Studies of Florida International University, 1992).
 29. "Practice and Ideology: A Cautionary Note on the Historian's Craft," Hispanic American Historical Review, Vol. 71 #4 (November 1991), pp. 847-855.
 30. Editor, Robert Alexander: The Complete Bibliography of a Pioneering Latin Americanist Latin American Labor Studies Bibliography #3 (Miami: Center for Labor Research and Studies, Florida International University, 1991).
 31. Editor of Latin American Labor Studies: An Interim Bibliography of Non-English Publications (1989) Latin American Labor Studies Bibliography #2 (Miami: Center for Labor Research and Studies of Florida International University, 1989).
 32. Editor of Latin American Labor Studies: A Bibliography of English Publications through 1989 Latin American Labor Studies Bibliography #1 (Miami: Center for Labor Research and Studies of Florida International University, 1989).
 33. Editor, The Microfilmed Ann and Franklin Chase Collection (A40155) of the Dallas Historical Society, a guide to the microfilm edition prepared by John D. French (Dallas: Dallas Historical Society, 1988).

Most Recent Book Reviews

1. Review of Larissa Rosa Corrêa, A Tessitura dos direitos: Padrões e empregados na justiça do trabalho, 1953-1964 (São Paulo: Editora LTr, 2011). In: Hispanic American Historical Review, Vol. 93 #4 (2014), 723-24.
2. Review of Oliver Dinius, Brazil's Steel City: Developmentalism, Strategic Power, and Industrial Relations in Volta Redonda, 1941-1964. Stanford: Stanford University Press, 2010), The Americas, Vol. 68 #4 (April 2012), 599-602.
3. Review of Antonio Luigi Negro, Linhas de Montagem. O Industrialismo Nacional-Desenvolvimentista e a Sindicalização dos Trabalhadores (São Paulo: 2004), Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas, Vol. 6 #4 (2010), 129-131.

Duke, National ,and International Professional Service (Selected)

Served two terms as an elected member of the Academic Council, Duke's only university-wide faculty governance body, for a two year term, 2013-17.

Served four terms as an elected member of the Executive Committee of the Graduate Faculty to advise the Duke Graduate School Dean on all matters dealing with graduate education, 2009-15.

Appointed to the Steering Committee of Humanities Writ Large, a Mellon-funded grant that is aimed at redefining the role of the humanities in undergraduate education, 2014-16.

Evaluated thirty-four faculty for promotion and tenure in various disciplines at a range of institutions in the U.S. and Canada.

Elected to co-chair the Brazil Section of the Latin American Studies Association for a term from 2014-2015.

Served as peer reviewer for the Fellowship Program of the American Council of Learned Society, Fall 2012.

Elected to the Executive Council of the Brazil Section of the Latin American Studies Association for a term of service from June 2012-June 2014.

Paid Consultant for the "Museum of Labor and the Laborer," a project of the city government of São Bernardo do Campo, São Paulo Brazil directed by Dr. Paulo Fontes, 2011-12.

Served as an external evaluator for the ACLS New Faculty Research Fellows Program, Fall 2011.

Named by the President of the Conference on Latin American History to serve on the Warren Dean Prize Committee for 2011 to select "the book or article judged to be the most significant work on the history of Brazil published in English during the previous two years.

Named by the President of the Latin American Studies Association to serve as chair of the Bryce Wood Book Prize committee to select "the outstanding book on Latin America in the social sciences and humanities published in English" between July 1, 2009 and December 31, 2010.

Served as coordinator of four Duke Latin American and Caribbean History Graduate Workshops, AY 2010-2011.

Elected to the Executive Committee of the Graduate Faculty to advise the Duke Graduate School Dean Jo Rae Wright on all matters dealing with graduate education, 2009-2011 and reelected for a second term 2011-12.

Served as the U.S. outside reviewer for a U.S. Department of Education three year FIPSE grant on "Persistent Inequalities: Legacies of the African Diaspora" linking two U.S. partner institutions (University of North Carolina-Charlotte and Winston-Salem State University) with three Brazilian ones (Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais, Universidade Federal de Pernambuco, and Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Rio de Janeiro), awarded in 2009. The evaluation was held on 8 July 2010.

Served as the U.S. outside reviewer from 2005-7 for a U.S. Department of Education FIPSE grant on Comparative African Diasporic Studies linking three U.S. partner institutions (University of North Carolina-Charlotte, Winston-Salem State University, the University of South Carolina) with three Brazilian ones (Universidade Federal da Bahia, Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina, and the Universidade Federal de Paraná), awarded in 2004.

Organizer or co-organizer of the Latin American Labor History Conferences, held annually since 1983 at Yale, Princeton, and Duke (since 1992).

Served on the selection committee for Academic Year fellowships and summer research grants at the Kellogg Institute for International Studies at the University of Notre Dame, 28 March 2007.

Served on the fellowship selection committee of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, which met in Washington D.C. on 8 January 2007.

Served as elected representative for the History Department on the Arts and Sciences Council, September 2003 to May 2004; while serving, elected to the Council's Executive Committee.

Read fellowship proposals for the National Humanities Center, 1996, 2001, 2002, 2004, 2005.

Elected to the Executive Council of the Latin American Studies Association for a three-year term beginning November 1, 2001, serving as Treasurer.

As a LASA EC member, I participated in two planning retreats, February 1-3, 2002 at Redlands University and November 1-3, 2002 at Duke, as a member of a 17 member Strategic Planning Group that created the organization's first "Strategic Plan 2003-2006" (a 59 page document released in 2003) and drafted a new LASA mission statement.

Served as Director of the Duke Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies, 1 July 2001-December 30, 2005.

Served as a consultant to review the U.S. Department of Education Brazilian Studies grant at the University of North Carolina, Charlotte, 22 April 2002.

Editorial Work

Serving as one of three Senior Editors of the Hispanic American Historical Review that began to be published at Duke for a five year term starting 1 July 2012.

Appointed to the Conselho Editorial of the Revista Histórica, published by the Arquivo Publico do Estado de São Paulo, August 2012.

Appointed to the Editorial Board of the Revista Ciências do Trabalho [Sciences of Labor Journal] published by DIEESE (Inter-Union Department of Statistics and Socio-Economic Studies) in São Paulo, May 2013.

Appointed to the Editorial Board of the Revista Ciências do Trabalho [Sciences of Labor Journal] published by DIEESE (Inter-Union Department of Statistics and Socio-Economic Studies) in São Paulo, May 2013

Appointed to the Conselho Editorial of the Revista Histórica, published by the Arquivo Publico do Estado de São Paulo, August 2012.

Served as one of three Editors for the Hispanic American Historical Review that will begin to be published at Duke for a five year term starting 1 July 2011.

Serve on the Board of Contributing Editors of Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas, 2012 to the present.

Founder and Associate Editor for Latin America and the Caribbean of Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas, 2004-2012.

Serve on the Editorial Council of Tempo Social, published by the Sociology department at the Universidade de São Paulo, since 2005.

Served on the International Advisory Board of the Bulletin of Latin American Research, published by the Society for Latin American Studies in the United Kingdom, from 2005-2010.

Served on the Editorial Board of the Hispanic American Historical Review, 2000-05.

Served on editorial councils of six historical journals from five states in Brazil.

Chaired the Editorial Committee for the "Latin America in Translation" series with Duke and the University of North Carolina Press, 1996-2005 responsible for 29 books published.

Reviewer of book manuscripts for: Johns Hopkins University Press; Duke University Press (6); University of Georgia Press (2); University of North Carolina Press (3); Penn State University Press (2); M. E. Sharpe; University of California Press; Harcourt Brace College Publishers; Utah State University Press (2), Woodrow Wilson Center Press, University of Illinois Press.

Reviewer of article manuscripts for: The Americas; Contours: A Journal of the African Diaspora (4); Hispanic American Historical Review (8); International Labor and Working Class History; International Review of Social History; Labor: Studies in Working Class History of the Americas (4); Labor History (2); Latin American Research Review (3); Luso-Brazilian

Selected Conference Presentations and Talks since 2000

- Presented a paper entitled “Getúlio Vargas, Communism, and the Social Question: Repression and Class Struggle during the Vargas Era” at the opening session of the VI International Symposium of Brazilian History. Brazil-France-United States: New Visions, New Perspectives,” sponsored by the Casa Rui Barbosa Foundation, 9 June 2015.
- Presented a chapter entitled “‘Rebels’ and ‘Good Boys’ in the 1960s: The Story of Two Brothers” for discussion by the Latin American History Workshop, University of Chicago, 18 April 2015.
- Invited participant in a roundtable on the future of labor history with Andreas Eckert (Humboldt University), Neville Kirk (Metropolitan Manchester University), Maria Helena P. T. Machado (Universidade de São Paulo), and Leon Fink (University of Illinois Chicago,“ at the Second International Worlds of Labor Conference in Rio de Janeiro, 27-30 November 2012.
- Invited as keynote speaker and roundtable presenter at the “First International Graduate Research Conference in Labor History,” sponsored by the Graduate History Program of the Universidade Estadual do Ceara (UECE) from 2-7 September 2012.
- Participated in a panel on “The Politics of Transformation in Brazil” on 14 September 2011 sponsored by the Bildner Center for Western Hemisphere Studies of the Graduate Center of CCNY.
- Participated in a panel on “The Brazilian Elections: Implications for the Future of Brazil and Latin America” held at Brown University on November 4, 2010 sponsored jointly by the Brown's Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies and the Watson Institute for International Studies.
- Presented a paper entitled "'Without Fear of Being Happy': The 1989 Presidential Election Campaign of the 'Brazilian Lech Walesa' Luis Inácio Lula da Silva," at International Conference on “1989 in a Global Perspective,” held in Leipzig, Germany, 14 -16 October 2009.
- Presented a paper entitled “Advances and Challenges in the Democratization of Archival Policies,” at an international seminar on “The World of Workers and their Archives” being sponsored by the Associação Latino-americana de Arquivos (ALA) from 9-11 September 2008 in São Paulo, Brazil.
- Presented a paper entitled “O Lula da República de São Bernardo: Consciência Popular, Liderança, e Mobilização entre os Metalúrgicos do ABC Paulista, 1950-1980” as part of the IV International Symposium on the History of Brazil held in Rio de Janeiro on 12-13 June 2008 with sponsorship by CPDOC and the Brazilian Studies Association.
- One of four panelists at the opening plenary of a conference entitled “Workers, the Nation-State, and Beyond: The Newberry Conference on Labor History across the Americas,” to be held at Chicago’s Newberry Library on 18-20 September 2008.
- Presented a paper entitled “Convergence as the Path to a Post-Neoliberal World: Brazilian and Latin American Lessons for a Twenty-First Century Left,” as part of the second workshop of an international research collaboration entitled “Left Turn Turns: Progressive Parties, Insurgent Movements, and Alternative Policies in Latin America,” held in Vancouver, Canada on 18-19 April 2007. Co-organized by Jon Beasley-Murray (UBC), Maxwell Cameron (UBC) and Eric Hershberg with sponsorship by the Latin American Studies programs of the University of British Columbia and Simon Fraser University; and at the "South by Midwest II: Rethinking Intellectuals in Latin America" conference held at Washington University in St. Louis, 7-8 November 2008.
- Presented a paper entitled “Another World History Is Possible: Latin Americanist Reflections on Translocal, Transnational, and Global History” as part of “Global History, Globally,” an international conference at Harvard University organized by Dominic Sachsenmaier and Sven Beckert, February 2008.
- Spoke at Harvard University as part of the Tuesday Seminar Series sponsored by the David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies on “Lula’s Politics of Cunning: From Trade

- Unionism to the Presidency,” 13 November 2007.
- Participated in May 2007 international research workshops entitled “Left Turn/Turns: Progressive Parties, Insurgent Movements, and Alternative Policies in Latin America” (Vancouver, Canada) and “Political Imaginaries in Latin America: Reverberations on the Contemporary Left” (Bloomington, Indiana).
- Presented “From the Shop Floor to the Praça da Sé: University Students Discover São Paulo’s Industrial Working Class” at the American Historical Association, January 2007, and at the University of Maryland, October 2004.
- Presented “Brazil’s President as Working Class Raposa (Fox): Understanding Lula the Politician,” at New York University, February 2006; the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars, May 2006; and University of Washington in Seattle, May 2007.
- Presented “The Rise of the Brazilian Workers’ Party and the Prospects for Lula’s Government” at the University of California at Riverside, May 2003; University of Washington in Seattle, April 2003; Northern Illinois University, March 2004; and at Cornell University and Princeton University in April 2005.
- Gave a keynote lecture entitled “‘Our Barbarous Civilizers’: A View from Latin America and the Caribbean,” at a March 2005 symposium on “The Jagged Edge: Globalization as Seen from the Near Periphery (Africa and Latin America)” at Indiana University.
- Spoke on the fiftieth anniversary of the suicide in office of President Getúlio Vargas, as part of a 2004 conference in Rio de Janeiro on “Revisiting the Vargas Era.”
- Presented “Continuities and Discontinuities within Brazilian Social Formation” at a March 2004 conference on “Slave and Non-Slave Society: Brazil and Europe in the 18th and 19th Centuries,” organized by Dick Geary (University of Nottingham) in Minas Gerais, Brazil with support from the Leverhulme Trust Research Fund (U.K).
- Presented “Trade Unionism and the Fight to Reshape the World that Trade Built: International Worker Rights in a Globalizing World, 1959-1999,” at the 39th International Conference of Labour and Social History (ITH) in Linz, Austria, September 2003.
- Presented a paper entitled “The Politics of Aphorism: The Social Question as a Police Matter (Um Caso de Polícia)” at the American Historical Association in Chicago, January 2003, and the University of Chicago, 5 February 2004.
- Presented “‘Not all of History is Recorded in the Books Supplied to School Children:’ The Challenge of ‘Pale History Books’ and the Fight for Black Inclusion in Brazil and the United States” at a November 2002 Rio de Janeiro conference on “Resistance and Inclusion: Encounter on the Memory and History of Afro-Brazilians and Afro-North-Americans.”
- Presented a keynote lecture at the 12th Southern Labor Studies Conference in Miami Beach, 26-28 April 2002, on “The Road from Seattle 1999: The Fight for Worker Rights in the Aftermath of 11 September.”
- Presented “Labor History in Latin America and the Caribbean: New Points of Departures” at a November 2000 conference at the International Institute of Social History in Amsterdam.
- Presented “From Versailles to Seattle” at a workshop on “International Labor Standards and International Labor Solidarity” at Wellesley College, November 2000.
- Presented “Backward Workers and Strikers Without Class Consciousness” at an October 2000 conference at Harvard on “Contentious Politics in the Developing World” organized by Elizabeth Perry and Ron Aminzade.

Honors Thesis Prize Winners

- Directed the International and Comparative Studies Honors Thesis of Katie Soltis entitled “Biting the Bullet and Banning Guns: The Brazilian National Referendum of 2005 and Its Defeat at the Polls,” 2011-2012. Winner of a Trinity College Schiff Summer Research Fellowship of $2500 to support her field research in summer 2011, Ms. Soltis graduated with Highest Distinction and was awarded the ICS Distinguished Thesis Award on 13 May 2012. A first year student at Harvard Law School, her thesis was also awarded the Durden Prize in the Honors Thesis category by the Perkins-Bostock Library at Duke University in July 2012.
- Directed the History Senior Thesis of Sophie Lehman entitled “Tibetan Elections in Exile: From

- Theocratic Monarchy to a Developing Diasporic Democracy, 1959-2009,” academic year 2008-09. Graduation with High Distinction. In August 2009, her thesis was awarded the 2009 Durden Prize for Honor Theses by Perkins-Bostock Library.
- Directed the History Senior Thesis of Taylor Jardno entitled “Taking Up Arms with El Eternauta: Understanding the Comic Books, Political Militancy, and Mythic Martyrdom of the Master Script-writer Hector Germán Osterheld (1952-2007),” academic year 2007-2008. Graduation with Highest Distinction and winner of the History Department’s William T. Laprade Prize for best honors thesis; currently a graduate student in Latin American history at Yale.
- Directed the History Senior Thesis of Olga González Silén, 2001-2002, entitled “‘Victims of Progress’: The Impact of Railroad Accidents on Venezuelan Society, Caracas-La Guaira 1883-1892.” It was co-awarded the History Department’s William T. Laprade Prize for best honors thesis; currently an ABD in Latin American history at Harvard.
- Directed the History Senior Thesis of Edyn Elizabeth Jessup, 1998-1999, entitled “‘Leading the Exemplary Life.’ Gender Ideology Throughout the Mexica Life Cycle: A Study of the Florentine Codex.” It was awarded the History Department’s Elizabeth Cannon Prize for excellence in research.
- Served as Faculty Advisor during 1993-1994 for Adriana Johnson's honors thesis in Comparative Area Studies entitled: "Telling What Truth? 'Revolution' in the Discourse of Perón and Castro." Ms. Johnson won the Fourth Annual Center for International Studies Award for Excellence in Comparative Analysis; currently an Assistant Professor of Romance Studies, University of California-Irvine.

Completed Doctoral Dissertations Directed

- Chaired the PhD. Examination committee of Bryan Pitts (Duke), 5 April 2013. Title: "The Inadvertent Opposition: The São Paulo Political Class and the Demise of Brazil's Military Regime, 1968-1985. After a year as a Bass Teaching Fellowship at Duke University, he currently holds a position there as a visiting assistant professor.
- Elizabeth Shesko (ABD, Duke), 19 July 2012, Title: “Conscript Nation: Authority and Belonging in the Bolivian Military Barracks, 1900-1950.” Currently on a Mellon post-doctoral fellowship at Bowdoin College.
- Kristin Wintersteen (Duke), 9 December 2011. Title: “The Transnational Environmental History of Humboldt Current Fisheries in Peru and Chile since 1945.” Currently a tenure track Assistant Professor at the University of Houston.
- Reena Goldthree (ABD, Duke), 15 September 2011. Title: “Shifting Loyalties: World War I and the Conflicted Politics of Patriotism in the British Caribbean.” Currently a tenure-track Assistant Professor at Dartmouth.
- Alejandro Velasco (PhD., 2009): "‘A Weapon as Powerful as the Vote’: Street Protest and Electoral Politics in Caracas, Venezuela before Hugo Chávez,” 10 April 2009. Currently a tenure-track Assistant Professor at NYU's Gallatin School. His book is forthcoming from the University of California Press.
- Ivonne Wallace-Fuentes (PhD. 2006): “Becoming Magda Portal: Poetry, Gender, and Revolutionary Politics in Lima, Perú, 1920-1930.” Currently a tenured Associate Professor at Roanoke College.
- Thomas Rogers (PhD. 2005): “The Deepest Wounds: The Laboring Landscape of Sugar in Northeastern Brazil.” Currently a tenured Associate Professor at Emory University, his 2010 monograph The Deepest Wounds: The Laboring Landscapes of Sugar in Northeast Brazil was published with UNC Press and has received several prizes
- Joann (Jody) Pavilack (PhD. 2002): "‘Black Gold in the Red Zone’: Social and Political Insurgency in Chilean Coal Mining Communities from the Popular Front to the Advent of the Cold War." Currently a tenured Associate Professor at the University of Montana-Missoula, she published a prize-winning 2011 monograph Mining for the Nation: The Politics of Chile's Coal Communities from the Popular Front to the Cold War (Penn State University Press).